PCHS

It is opening night for PCHS. As night falls, you can see the stars come out. There are stars out at PCHS, too. Every one of the students is a star in his own right. Some of the students have been shining for four long years while others are just beginning to twinkle.

Retrospect Productions has captured life at PCHS to preserve your numerous treasured memories.

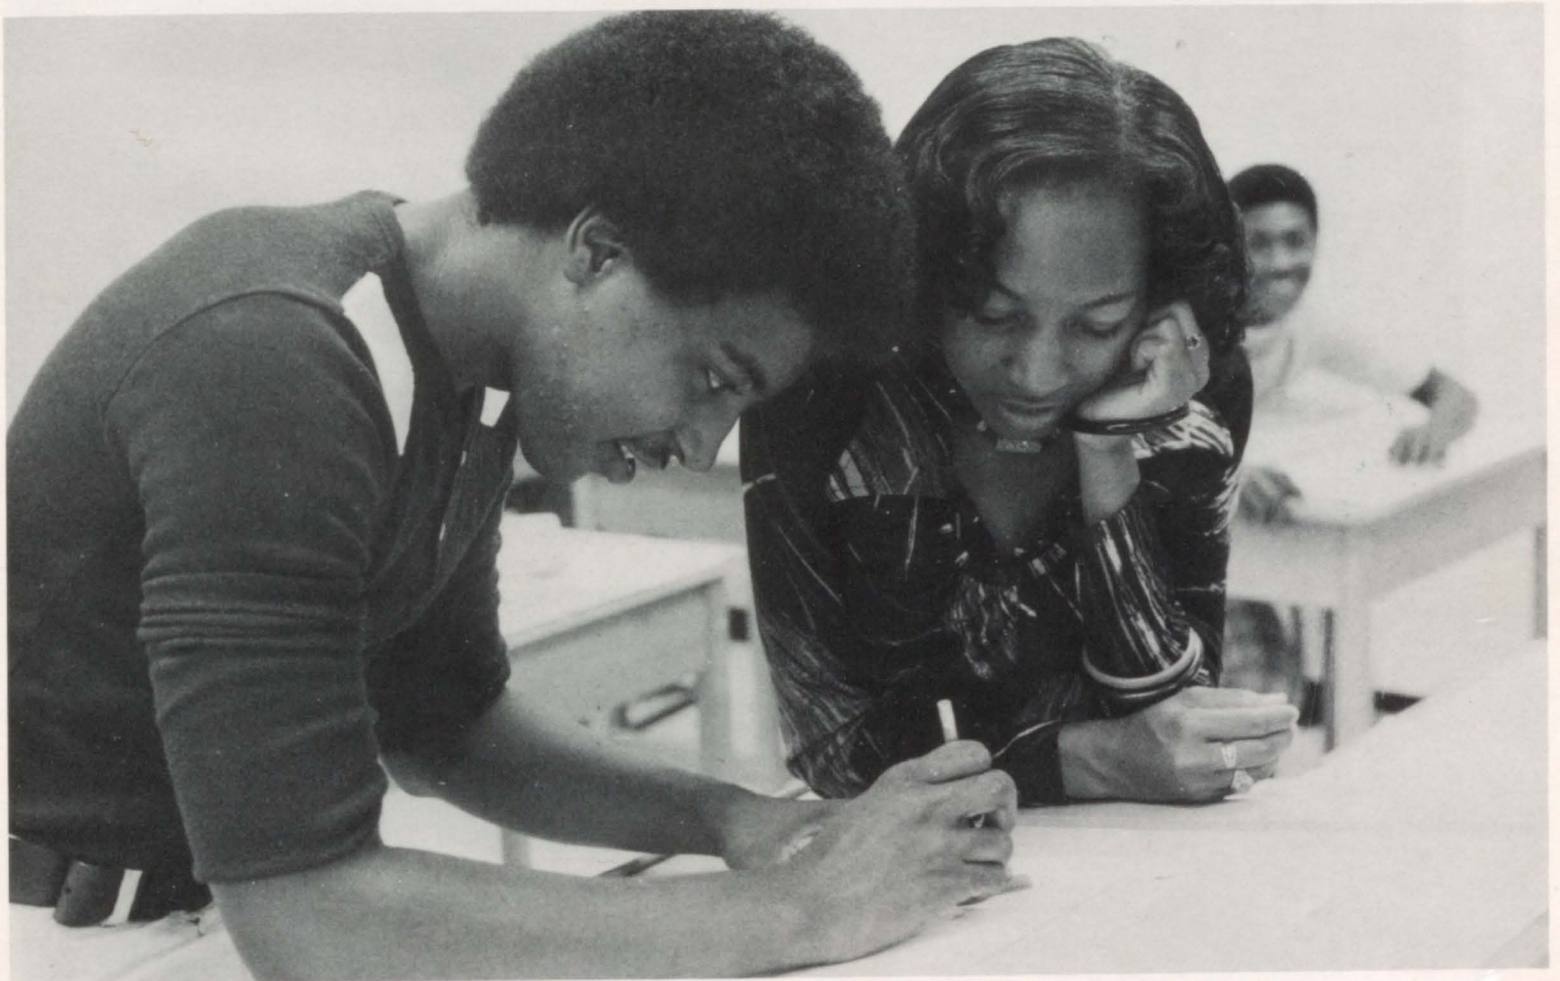

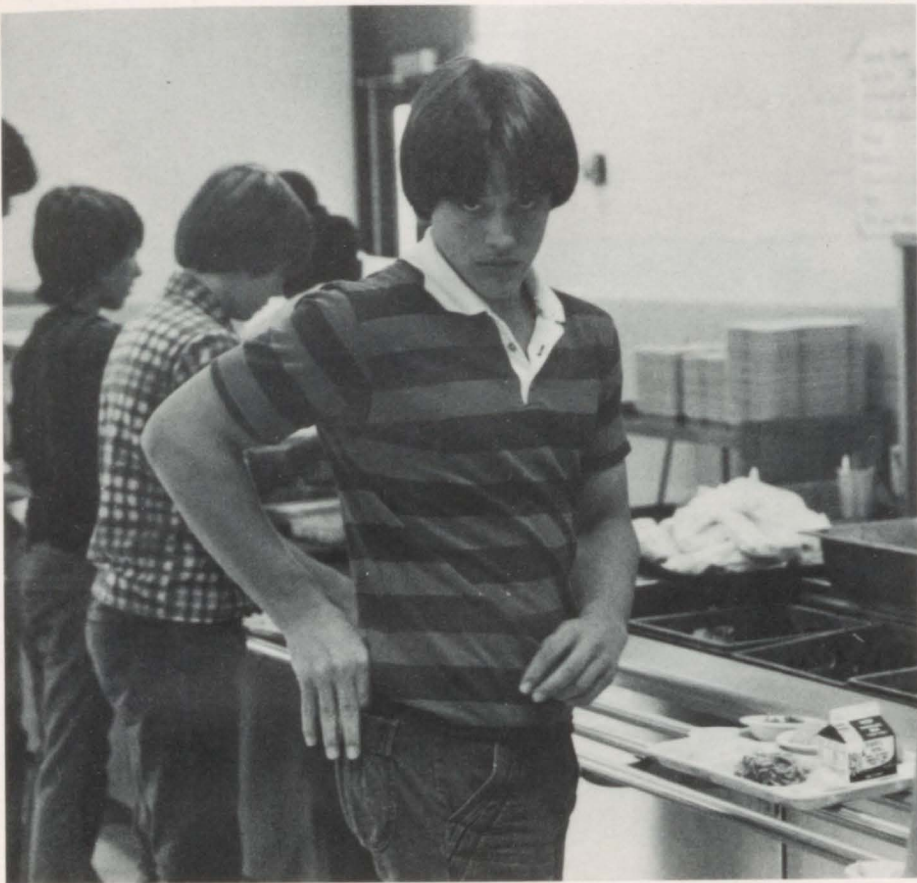

As you view this picture, take time to consider the countless students who sat in your seats before you and those who have yet to experience life at PCHS.

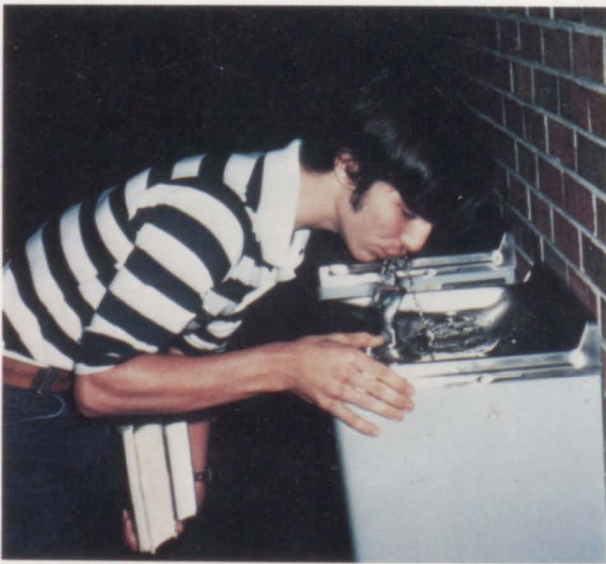

As the lights begin to fade and the curtains to part, PCHS comes on the screen with reflections from the past and bright stars for the future.

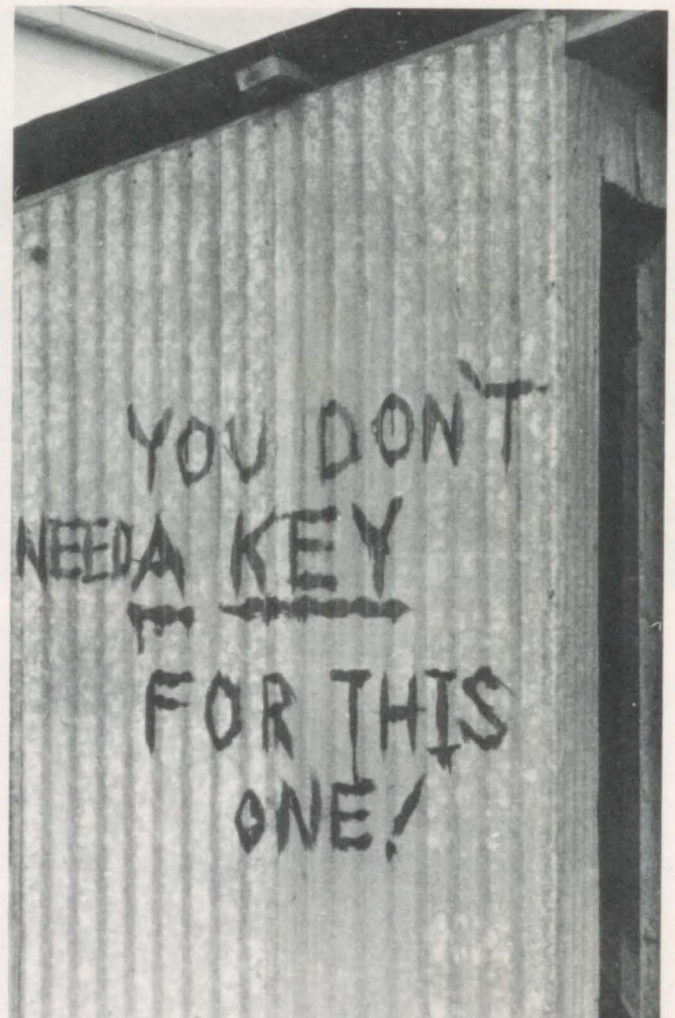

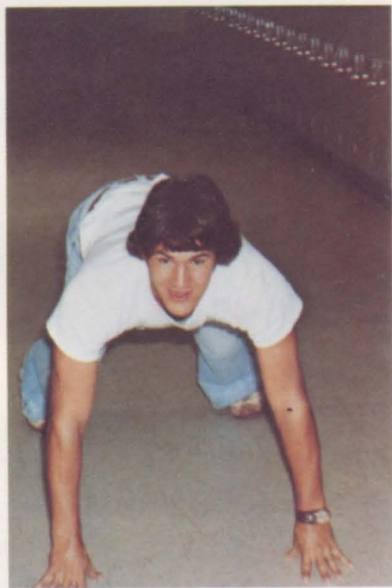

This sure was fun.

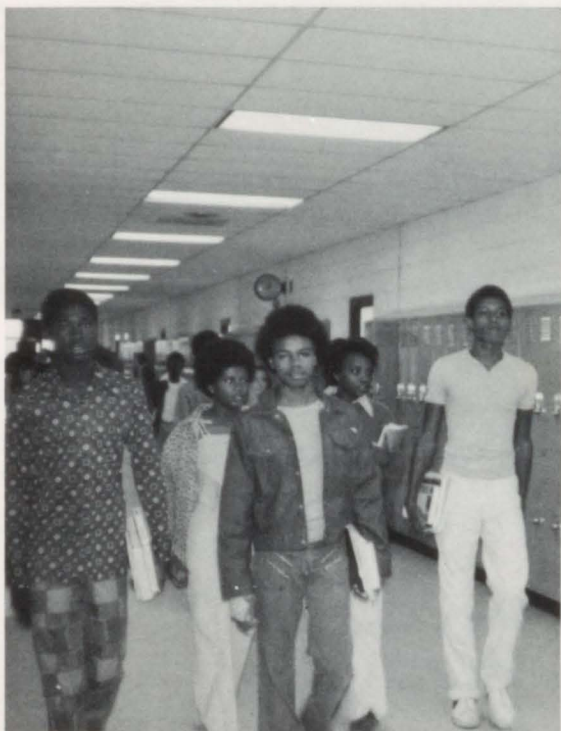

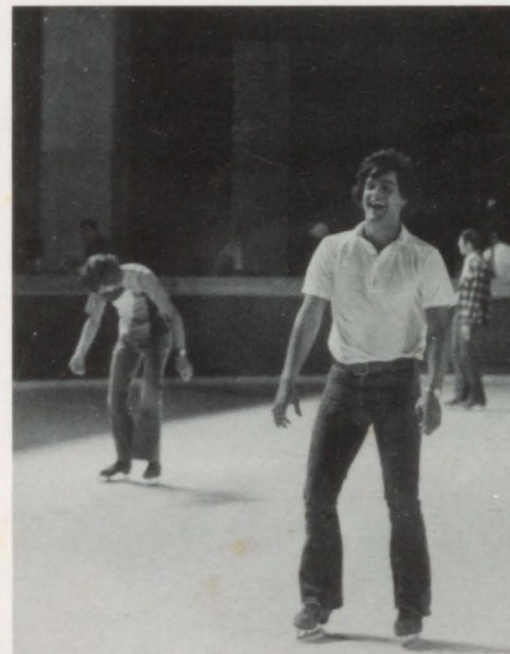

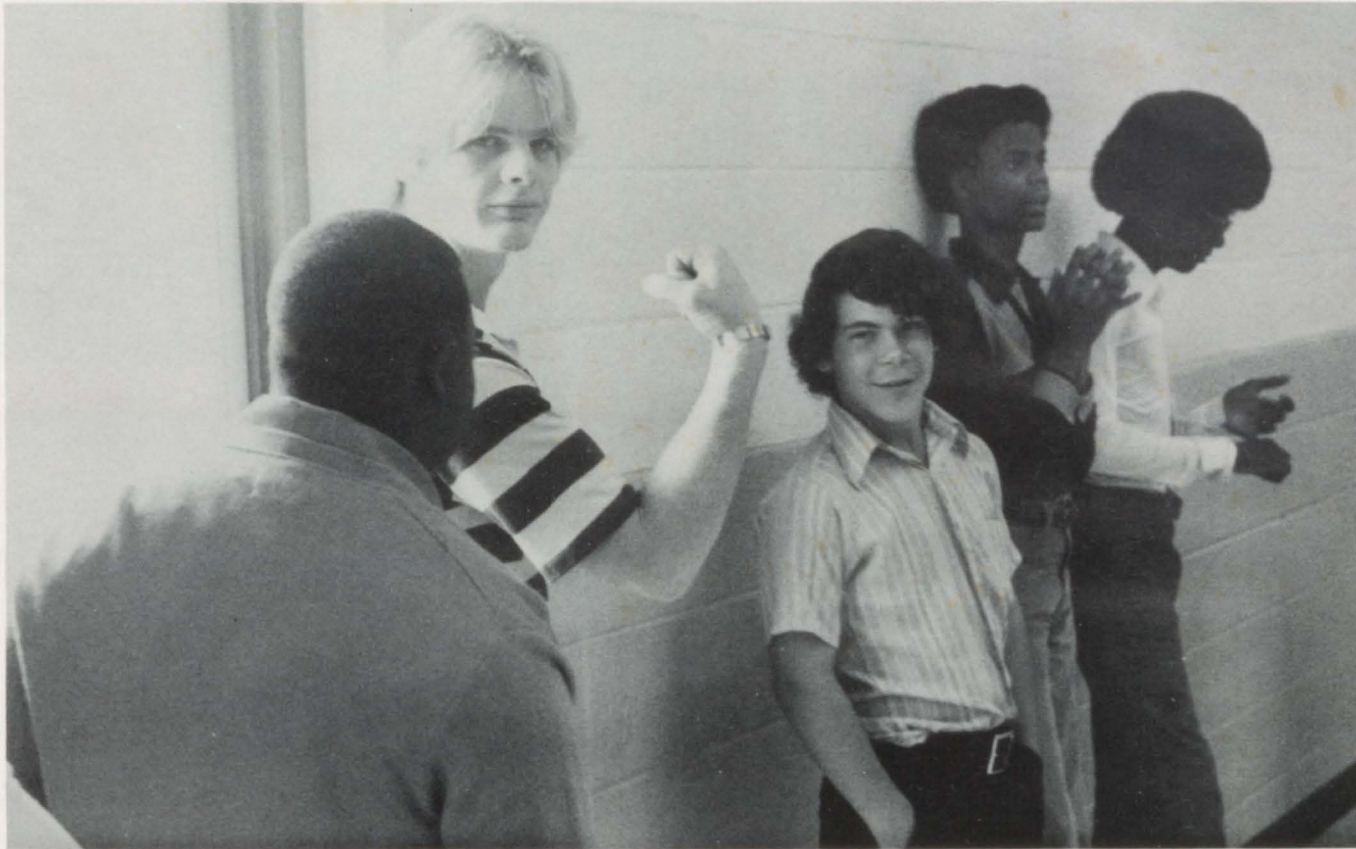

Although my parents assured me that the high school years are THE BEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES, when I, as THE FRESHMAN, came to a new high school after THE LONG, HOT SUMMER, I was IN A LONELY PLACE. My first day of school was ROCKY, and I wished that I was THE INVISIBLE MAN or that I could dig a hole in THE GOOD EARTH and crawl in. I made it to homeroom somehow, but in THE LAND UNKNOWN, I couldn't seem to find my way to my first class. I was M*A*S*Hed between TWELVE ANGRY MEN who looked like seniors. They eyed me with SUSPICION. Finally, I ran into a FUNNY GIRL who seemed to be the only senior with any sympathy for me. She directed me to class as an act of SWEET CHARITY and I ran like GREASED LIGHTNING. By lunchtime, the seniors seemed to have adjusted to the idea of freshmen and had adopted a policy of LIVE AND LET DIE. I CARRIED my books to the lunchroom at HIGH NOON and ate what looked like SOYLENT GREEN. When sixth period finally arrived, I was amazed that I had not been murdered IN COLD BLOOD. The next four years were a ROLLER-COASTER of WAR AND PEACE. I learned to appreciate the SOUND OF MUSIC in Choral Music, to BANG THE DRUM SLOWLY in band, to make a table out of FIVE EASY PIECES in shop, and to cook ANIMAL CRACKERS in home ec. As THE GRADUATE, I GAILY GAILY remember the FRENZY of rushing to class, the PSYCHO's I had for teachers, the fun I had BREAKING TRAINING, and THE GETAWAY after my last CAREFREE day as a senior. But I remember most vividly watching freshmen struggle through their first day of school. Now THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Gillespie,
 I've only known you for 2 years, but it sure seems longer. I'm glad I had you for a teacher in Typing I & II.
 I'll miss you Miss Temple (Johnnie) next year. If ever ya'll are in Byron, stop by the Experiment Station. I'll probably still be there.

I love

Last will and testament

I, Dorothy Adams, will to James Adams and Joyce Mitchell a sound mind and a sound body to breeze through PCHS . . . I, Lisa Lanter, will to Danny Lindsey my place in the Youth Choir and all my "midnight memories" of Buena Vista, Virginia. I hope he can also use my nickname "bionic shortcake" . . . I, Carol Kendrick, will to all individuals the ability to cope with life's problems and take them in stride for there is nothing far better than being alive . . . I, Clinton Mitchell, will to Carlos Mitchell skill on the football field . . . I, Jay Newberry, leave to Allen Vance my outstanding off-road driving ability in hopes that one day he can get all four of 'em off the ground . . . I, Don Mills (WFPM) would like to say thanks to all the students that listen to my show and to all the teachers who helped me make it possible . . . I, Vickie Jones, will to David and Kelvin Morgan the ability to do their job in the percussion section as well as run the women . . . I, Gary Hopson, leave to all of my great friends the same love and friendship that you have shown to me . . . I, Genie Bartlett, leave to Joey Bozeman and all future annual staff members "numerous" cases of M & Ms . . . I, Ricky Speir, will to future PCHS students the ability to open the rest room doors with your I. D. card . . . I, Debbie Hunt, will to certain people at PCHS the ability to "cut-up" at lunch and keep peace with your "friends" at the same time . . . I, Barbara Morton, leave to Ramona Rucker the ability to smile and speak to Danny Russell without turning her head in the other direction . . . I, Rusty Bozeman, leave to all future Elvis imitators the ability to be snatched off the stage and survive . . . I, Anna Rumph, leave my "wittle" parking spot to anyone with a car small enough to handle it . . . I, Carlton "SKETE" Caldwell, will to all underclassmen the ability to be cool and get over on PCHS like I did . . . I, Rickey Oliver, will to "Nee Nee" the authority to take over the throne at PCHS and to Wayne Harris the ability to become the best Bass Player ever to live . . . I, Tommie Mobley, will to Randy Lindsey the do's and don'ts about tall and short girls . . . I, David Lynn, being of sound mind and weak body, give my best handwriting to Miss King so her students can read the assignments . . . I, Cynthia Canady, will to Cherry Oates the ability to keep her mouth closed while the teacher is talking and to Joseph Jackson a smile . . . I, Steve Solomon, leave Tony and all the other underclassmen $\frac{1}{10}$ of my funky mind and the tactics necessary to survive in this jungle . . . I, Regina Small, will to my brother, Quintin, the ability to love a person for more than one year without changing . . . I, Carleen Garnto, leave my most heartfelt humble apology to Cliff Collins, Mark Bassett and the other illustrious members of Miss Snodgrass's third period English II class for making them late to lunch on Senior Teacher day . . . I, Janice Miller, will to Pat Miller and Carol Gallmon the ability to go through their Senior year without getting caught chewing gum . . . I, Depalma Strong, will to Voncile Mathis my love and ability to finish school without getting in trouble . . . I, Stan Mathews, will to my sister the ability to stay in PCHS another year . . . I, Faye Brown, will to the future Golden Girls the ability to go to drill team camp and break all the rules without getting caught . . . I, Michelle Golphin, will to Alexa Catchings and Latanya Golphin the ability to keep their business to themselves, which I never had . . . I, Dave Wills, leave to all underclass swampmen, the ability to tackle the SWAMP in style, and come out struttin' . . . I, Finily Clark, will to Fanita Wright all my LOVE forever . . . I, Zenobia Hillman, will to the class of '79 the will to pass Miss King's test without studying . . . I, Chauncil Talton, will to my cousin, Jacqueline Smith, the ability to twirl a painted wooden stick while trying to "TROT" in the PCHS Band of 1978-79 . . . I, Alan Jackson, will to anyone the ability to take Mr. Cook's class for two years and not get in any trouble . . . I, Jennifer Nunnally, being of sound mind and unsteady hand leave my English compositions to anyone who can read them . . . I, Priscilla Kemp, will to Cassandra Gordon, the ability to grow at least two more inches before she finishes High School . . . I Gail Giles, leave to my brother, Mike, the ability to wait until his senior year before goofing off . . . I, Nancy Woodall, leave to Lauri Carr an alarm clock in hopes that one day she will learn to use it . . . I, Deborah Daniely, leave all high school students the ability to go through high school four years and to keep their cool, smile a lot, and still come out sane . . . I, Arnita Barnes, will to Yvonne Roberson the ability to live and let live and to also find happiness with Lane as I've found with Curtis . . . I, Charles Shephard leave my car key to Eddie Watson so he won't have to steal them . . . I, Douglas Moorehead, will to all trumpet players the ability to play all of my solos without being nervous . . . I, Teresa Clark, leave Barbara Gilbert more luck in finding a man who's tall, dark, and handsome, since I haven't had such luck . . . I, Dorothy Canady, will to LaWanda Canady all the hall passes needed to walk out of PCHS without getting caught by the "electric" eye . . . I, Carol Vissage, leave a part of my clothing to Kim Holly in hopes that someday it will be FULL FILLED . . . I, Gayle Graening, would like to express my appreciation to Mr. Lindsay for being a special friend, and for teaching me how to express music in my own way . . . I, Lorraine Joyner, will to Janet Barnes my extreme lack of manual dexterity in the chemistry lab . . . I, Kathy Sledge will to PCHS Randy Sledge hoping that they can teach him something . . . I, Penny Young, leave Pam and Tracie Holland, Barbara Gilbert and Jeanie Webb this school . . . I, Stephanie Wagonhoffer, will the ability to get away with anything with my innocent looks to anyone who thinks they can get away with it . . . I, Terry Moore, will my brains and love to a very special person . . . I Joycine Plant, will to future Golden Girls my ability to cooperate with the other members and to all future high school students my hall pass forging ability . . . I, Mamie Oglesby, will to my brother, Jerry Oglesby, the ability to be cool, never a fool, keep up his knowledge and stay in school . . . I, Jonathan James, leave . . . I, Kathey Talton, will to Oscar Smith the ability to stay in school for one week . . . I, Jeff Jordan, will to my sister all my coolness, if she can handle it . . . I, Edgar Ragin, being of completely warped mind and body, will my seat in Trigonometry class to anyone crazy enough to take it . . . I, Bruce Wootson, will to Mr. Miles the ability to kill students with his jokes . . . I Carol Outler, will to the underclassmen of PCHS the ability to stay out of trouble in your senior year but to also have the best time you can . . . I, Brenda Lowe, will to Shirley Harden the common sense to go to school one day without acting foolish . . . I, Ronnie Sullivan, will to my friends Johnny Dewberry, Ralph Mathis, and Aaron Brown all the units I have left at PCHS which will be none . . . I, Ralph Christopher, will to Virginia Lowe all my love and all the happiness that goes with it . . . I, Gloria Lockett, will to Michael Harris dead or alive the ability to keep on keeping on . . . I, Richard Lowe, will to Donald Walker my nickname "Koonie" and hope he carries it with pride . . . I, Beverly Glover, will to every PCHS student the ability to try harder . . . I, Eddie Allison, leave to my brother, Mike, the ability to pass the eleventh grade and get the 5½ units he so desperately needs next year to graduate . . . I, Gwennetta Walker, will to all the underclassmen the ability to keep moving forward in life . . . I, Missy Adams, do hereby bequeath my "poison pen" to Mr. McClendon, that he may happily see it destroyed . . . I, Cindy Melton, will Miss Gillespie to anyone who has the guts to take three courses under her in one year . . . I, Velda Holmes will to Thelma Williams my charm and will to be one of the second Miss Trojanettes and hope that there will be a better understanding . . . I, Jackie Alston, will to the future Golden Girls the abilities of not learning the routine all week and then performing that Friday night . . . I, Jackie Brown, will to Ida McCrary the ability to grow as tall as Wilt Chamberlain . . . I, Debbie Smisson, leave Sheila Clark the brains to realize she should not have come back to PCHS . . . I, Cindy Edwards, will to Nancy Johnson the ability to eat fireballs in Miss Gillespie's class without getting caught . . . I, Marlon Griggs, leave Garrite Gibson, Beverly Hand, Ricky Troutman, and Fredrick Gibson my mind so that they can carry on the FUNK . . . I, Howard "Muscleman" Edwards, leave to the coaches on the varsity football team a black and gold bottle warmer and custom made black "Frog" ties . . . I, Lucrista Edwards, will to all Juniors the ability to become Seniors . . . I, Brian Whitehead, will to next year's seniors my skill for riding a "souped-up" tricycle without losing control in the high speed senior tricycle race and the nerve to listen to the childish complaints of the defeated . . . I, Angela Jones, will to Ann Williams my ability to smile all day long . . . I, Roy Spillers, will to all the guys from Byron the ability to cut class as much as I did and not get caught . . . I, Cassandra Ross, will to Roseanna and Bernistine Ross the ability to someday be a proud Senior . . . I, Joanne Ruland, leave my trusty little Sinex bottle to Elizabeth Gresham so that she might be able to breath as happily and easily as I have . . . I, Kenneth Lee Oates, being of sound mind and body, will Jefferey Towns the ability to hold on to the football . . . I, Archie Ralph Fluellen, will to PCHS the many footsteps I have walked over its property and the many nights and days of hard work I am putting into my senior year . . . I, Wanda Foster, leave the ability to write love songs and poetry about every guy in school to Marilyn Rogers, who is as boy crazy as me . . . I, Della Jackson, will to Dwayne Bawn the ability to speed up in everything he does and will to Joe Jackson my lovely smile . . . I, Barbara Brown, will to Cedric Allen the ability to play football as a quarterback without making so many stupid mistakes . . . I, Davida Hudson, leave to all persons under five feet the ability to dodge elbows in the hall . . . I, Ralph Howard, didn't learn anything but, leave to Phenny Veronica Adams and Elmer Glue Robinson my Hunger and Thirst for knowledge at PCHS . . . I, Wilford Sims, leave to this school me for another year and the phrase "I can deal with it" to anyone in Miss King's homeroom . . . I, Alonzo Bryant will to Andrew Deloach all my abilities, so that he can leave PCHS . . . I, Brantley Sims, leave to Alan Dent and Wesley Fuller the ability to go to the "extremes" anytime they see fit to do so . . . I, Donnie Searcy, do leave to Sherry Jean Ross and Angela Searcy all the courage I had to make it all the way through PCHS . . . I, David

Mathis, will to PCHS the ability to set a goal and never stop trying until you have succeeded . . . I, Sedrick Brown, will to anyone who plays noseguard the ability to lead the region the whole year in tackles and assists like "Get-down" Brown did . . . I, Penelope Yvette Troutman, leave to all band members (especially the Drill Team) the ability to pick their feet up high while marching like I'm always doing . . . I, Canajoharia Ross, will the ability to all Flag Girls of PCHS to do one drill exactly right . . . I, Robert Barker, will to Randy and Jim eleven good reasons why they should have a "Gumball Rally" on the way to school . . . I, Lori Collins, will "GOOF" to LaTanya and Alexa (complete with busted doors and red wheels). To Merilee I leave a coathanger because her finger needs a rest . . . I, Angela Wicker, leave my ability to aggravate Mrs. Peterman, by either talking all period or checking out four times a week to anyone brave enough to try it . . . I, Ray Neal, leave to PCHS teachers the ability to cope with nine more generations of Neals beginning next year with Warner, Eddie, Victor, Kathy, and Kenneth . . . I, Penny Marshall, leave my ability to drive a car to Anita Ponder . . . I, Terry Cliett, will to anyone who will accept it, a life in Jesus as much fun as mine . . . I, Wanda Allen, leave to Letitia Toomer the ability and the knowledge to get out of PCHS . . . I, Steve Keys, will to PCHS exactly what it gave me—absolutely NOTHING . . . I, Arita Rene Edwards, will to all future Golden Girls, the ability to march high, smile and shake your hips as hard as I did . . . I, Gregory Taylor, leave all the women and friends I have had through the years and I leave my happiness to spread among you in your days of sorrow . . . I, Willie J. Johnson, will my love, happiness and smile, my teachers and my ability to finish school without flunking, to one special girl named Kathey Stone . . . I, Parrin Barton, do hereby give and bequeath to all black underclass women my heaven sent "SEX APPEAL" . . . I, Thomas Griggs, will to Kirk Huggins the ability to find a girlfriend and give his love to her as I am giving my love to Pat . . . I, Renita Dollar, leave to Micheal Harris, Audrey Smith and Elliot Keen, nothing but bad memories of PCHS . . . I, Rickey Blalock, will to Penny Walton my sole possession, NOTHING . . . I, Susan Earnhardt, leave to PCHS, Roberta and Robert in hopes that they can put up with them as long as I have . . . I, Sheryl Stephens, will to the underclassmen a pick and a shovel so that they may dig their way to freedom . . . I, Renee Parker, will to my sister, Sherry, the ability to face all those hungry, stampeding students at my job on the sack-lunch line with a smile . . . I, Theresa Brooks, will to Penny Walton, Brian Moore, Michael Senoir, and Donnie Walker the ability to make two points in every basketball game . . . I, Terry Mimbs, do hereby will to Lynn Leonard the ability to find a way to school next year . . . I, Mary McGhee, will to Johnnie M. Lockett my socks which I never wore . . . I, Jerry Wright, will to Ernestine Wilson the ability to speed up her great talent and the best of my love forever . . . I, Geraldine Ages, will to Kenneth Rumph my locker, which I never got open . . . I, Duncan Morgan, will to Earl Carter my lunch ticket because he's always hungry, and to Lopez a pair of shades because he always has someone else's . . . I, Dollie Anne Hopkins, will to any future PCHS students my ability to get a bottom locker four years in a row . . . I, Danny Russell, being of sound mind and body will to Daffie Keen, my seat in Trigonometry . . . I, Carlton Johnson, leave to D'Wayne Bawn the ability to stick it out one more year with Coach Smith . . . I, Wilborn Milton Strafford McCrary Jr., will to Greta Mathis all my "love" and the ability to go through PCHS two more years without any problems if she can handle both . . . I, Rose Dent, leave Joyce Raffield the ability to skip Horticulture three days out of a week and end up with a B average . . . I, Billy Helton, being of no mind and a lot of body leave all of it to Liz Reynolds in hopes that she will enjoy it . . . I, Peter Gibson, will to my baby sister, Penn, the ability to learn how to sing like her big "bro" cause lord knows she can't . . . I, Sharon Bailey, will to all underclassmen the ability to do all sorts of dirty work and still remain a sweet innocent person . . . I, D'Ann Lovett, leave to all, future geometry students the following postulates: the "I don't know" postulate, the "It looks like it" postulate, the "because I said so" postulate, the "I guess so" postulate, the "It sounds good to Me" postulate, and hope that they can use them as well as I did . . . I, Patricia Toles, will to Thomas Griggs all my love and happiness and hope there will be another couple like us that will last for five years as we did . . . I, Anna Rinehart, leave my faithful "White Rain" to Cindy Jones, and to Robyn Holly I leave the ability to watch the guys on the sidelines without being left behind on the victory march . . . I, Gerald Marshall, will to Cedric Allen the ability to get a girlfriend and dance after making a touchdown without getting caught . . . I, Sally Reynolds, leave my personality to those who need it and my looks to those who envied it . . . "STAR WARS"

To those students who do not participate in extracurricular activities . . .

Dear Miss Gillespie,
What can I say about a person who has taught me 3 years. My life will be cherished along with some other Memories of this year.
I know you're going to miss but try to think of it the way. You haven't lost a good, excellent, perfect Student, you've gained a life - lect.

To those who were in the wrong place
at the right time . . .

To those who were the victims of photographic errors . . .

To those who really “got into” their lockers or fell asleep in class . . .

To the industrious student and to those who “get all wrapped up” in school . . .

To those who skipped assembly or turned their backs to the camera . . .

The Retrospect Staff of 1978 proudly dedicates this book to all these people, without whose help it was produced.

EDITOR'S EPILOGUE

In the past four years many changes have taken place at PCHS so this year the 1978 RETROSPECT has taken on a few changes of its own. In August of '77 four staff members took advantage of an opportunity to go to Atlanta for a seminar which has proved to be beneficial. Another thing that was added this year was our slide show to kick off the sales campaign which turned out to be a great success. We, the staff of RETROSPECT '78, are proud of this year's production and we hope that it will help to bring back many good memories of the 1977-78 year.

Trying to give credit where credit is due is going to be hard because somebody always gets left out. First I would like to thank our advisor Miss Snodgrass who has spent much of her own time and money helping us to produce RETROSPECT '78. Second I would like to thank Mr. McClendon for his co-operation and patience with us. Next I would like to thank each of the other fourteen staff members who, each in their own way, contributed to the RETROSPECT. Last, but most important, I would like to thank the students of PCHS for whom this book was published and without whose help it couldn't have been done.

Brunley S.S.

In loving memory of
WESLEY LEVERETT
He will be sorely missed
by the students and faculty of PCHS.
